

2017 Gladstone M. Hill Friend of the Arts & Humanities Award
Presented by the Portsmouth Museum & Fine Arts Commission

As a highlight of the annual Seawall Art Show, the Portsmouth Museum and Fine Arts Commission presents the Gladstone M. Hill Friend of the Arts & Humanities Award to an outstanding volunteer contributor to the arts and humanities in Portsmouth, Virginia each year.

The enclosed form represents the criteria a nominee must meet for consideration as a qualified candidate for the award. An address is provided, along with a submission deadline date, to mail the application.

Nominee Criteria and Submission Instructions

The nominee should have demonstrated a commitment to the arts and humanities in Portsmouth, Virginia through volunteerism, advocacy/appreciation, financial/in-kind contributions, membership in cultural organizations, purchase of art and attendance at performances/exhibitions in the community.

1. This award will recognize all areas of the arts and humanities including visual arts, performing arts, literary works, history, and education.
2. The nominee may not be a current member of the Portsmouth Museum and Fine Arts Commission, or a paid staff member of the Portsmouth Museums.
3. The nominee may be an individual, family, or organization, which collectively meets the criteria. Only one award will be presented to the recipient(s).
4. The nomination should reflect the community orientation of the recipient's support of the arts and humanities rather than emphasis on one organization or art form.
5. If the nominee has employment in the arts and humanities, please elaborate on the nominee's volunteer contributions or activities rather than his/her employment activities/accomplishments.
